The Pope's Intention:

For the proper use of wealth. Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of common good and solidarity of those who have less.

ALL SAINTS SOLEMNITY, YEAR A

Today, the Church gives us the opportunity to celebrate our unsung heroes. The Feast of All Saints is a celebration in recognition of the efforts made by many "Faithful" who are not officially canonized or beatified by the Church. It sets before us models of holiness. They have gone ahead of us, living out their faith during their earthly journey by being faithful to God, taking up great challenges and sacrifices. Contrary to the belief of one known Christian sect, that: "Only one hundred and forty-four thousand people will be saved or enter God's kingdom," our first reading today gives us hope that there are enough rooms in God's kingdom for anyone that triumphs. So, All Saints refers to: "The crowd so great that no one could count. They were individuals of all nations and races, of all peoples and languages." This Feast is not just about honouring the saints; it is about discovering our own call to holiness and asking ourselves what it truly means to live a saintly life in today's world. The Saints are not necessarily the perfect/holy people as many of us think, but the people who have been washed in the Blood of Christ. Salvation is all about Redemption, Repentance, and Regeneration. The only condition required of us is purity – purity of intention, purity of words, purity of deeds.

Next Sunday: Dedication of the Cathedral

Year A' readings are:

First reading:

1 Kings 8:22-23, 27-30

Gospel:

Matthew 16:13-19

You are encouraged to look at these readings ahead of next Sunday.

FAMILY RESOURCE FOR ALL SAINTS FROM CELEBRATE TRUST

Claire Fernandes from CELEBRATE Children and Family Lead is delighted to share the CELEBRATE online family pack for All Saints and celebrating saints throughout the year. The pack aims to provide parish and school families with ideas on how to get to know the saints and walk with them in the journey of holiness. There are suggestions for saint crafts and activities, prayers, books to savour and videos to enjoy together. The pack is free to download as they want all families to be able to access this resource, but not free to produce. Suggested donations are Individual/Family £3, Schools £10, Parishes £20. The link:
