27TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY, YEAR A

This Sunday, the readings speak about faith, trust, and the need to live rightly before God. They remind us that God trusts us to care for what He has given. Isaiah and the psalm tell the story of a vineyard that has gone wild. God planted it with care, but it produced only bitter fruit.

These words remind us that blessings are not enough if they do not lead to justice and mercy. God wants actions that show love and respect for others. In the Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about tenants who refuse to honour the landowner. They rejected his servants and even his son. It is a warning for anyone who ignores God's message. In the parable, the landowner represents God, the vineyard is His Kingdom, and the tenants are His people. God has entrusted us with His gifts – life, faith, talents, relationships – and He expects us to bear fruit: love, justice, mercy, and holiness. Like a vineyard, our world is meant to bear good fruit. God gives everything we need to grow in love, faith, and kindness. Yet, sometimes we forget our role as caretakers and live for ourselves instead. This Sunday helps us remember that God is patient but also calls us to live with purpose and obedience. Jesus warns that ignoring God's call leads us away from His plan. Today, we are invited to trust God, act with justice, and grow good fruit in our lives. Are we producing good fruit for God's Kingdom?
